

Top Ten Reasons to See a Homeopath Before, During Pregnancy, and Birth

1. Fertility problems can be corrected through homeopathic treatment in three to eighteen months, particularly in cases of unexplained infertility, but also for endometriosis and PCOS.
2. Reducing or getting off of meds can be easier with homeopathic treatment, including detoxification if needed.
3. Homeopathic treatment prior to conception can minimize hereditary risks.
4. Healthy pregnancies can be saved from risk of miscarriage.
5. Nausea, heartburn, constipation, achey pelvis, sciatica, fatigue, anemia, varicose veins, high blood pressure, mood swings and other problems and discomforts of pregnancy can be safely treated homeopathically. Homeopathic remedies are absolutely non-toxic and safe for mother and baby at any stage of the pregnancy.
6. Homeopathic birth preparation can help prepare you physically as well as emotionally, reducing length of labour, chances of dystocia, and promoting quick recovery.
7. Effects of traumatic events on the baby during pregnancy can be reduced through homeopathic treatment.
8. Homeopathic remedies can naturally assist labour starting if you go past 40 weeks.
9. Homeopathic remedies can be used for pain management during labour and to help move labour along efficiently.
10. Homeopathic remedies are continue to be safe during breastfeeding, can help with postpartum recovery, for milk production, mastitis, colic, and other issues of the newborn.